Marmora they had sunk or damaged two battleships, five gunboats, one torpedo boat, eight transports and 197 supply ships.
Mr. Asquith said there was full agreement between Great Britain and France to maintain the independence of Serbia and not let it "become the prey of the sinister and nefarious combination of Germany, Austria and Bulgaria."

The premier asserted the financial situation of Great Britain was serious and that the nation must prepare to make further greater sacrifices than it had yet done to enable it to sustain the burden imposed by the war.

FAIRMONT CHARTER

Decision of the Lower Court is Reversed by the Supreme Court of the State.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 2.—The supreme court of appeals today reversed the circuit court of Marion county in the Fairmont city charter case and permitted the Republican citizens to become parties to the suit.

The lower court had denied them that right. The higher court held "petitioners, who had been improperly refused the right to file their petition in a pending suit and to become parties thereto, have the same right of appeal to this court, as if they had been made parties by the bill." The court also held that persons desiring to have a charter put into operation have a right to come into court and make defense when the constitutionality of a charter is attacked. This was denied the Republicans in the lower court.

APOSTLE RUSSELL MAKES CHALLENGE TO PASTOR RUSSELL

Wants to Debate with the Head of the International Bible Students Association.

The following signal challenge explains itself:
In yesterday's issue of the paper that gets all the news (Telegram) I read the following:
"Not Pastor Russell. Apostle Russell, who is holding court house yard meetings is not Pastor Russell, of Brooklyn, head of the International Bible Students' Association, who has spoken in Clarksburg a few times."
When Apostle Russell came to the city he was announced from the pulpit and by press that he was from Canada, so that the citizens were already fully apprised of his identity, then why this warning note?

It rather savors of a hint to his flock to stay away from Apostle Russell's meetings. Why not the rather advise all the pastor's flock as Paul did, 1st. Thes. 5:21: "Prove all things, hold fast that which is good." That is what Apostle Russell advises his hearers to do.

However, that the citizens of this city may have an opportunity of seeing the real difference between the two Russells and learning the difference

How to Prevent Croup.
It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Elida, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the home, and when he began having that croupy cough I would give him one or two doses of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Watson Planning Race For Senator In Maryland State

Has Lived in Baltimore for Years and Will Move His Legal Residence There.

West Virginia Democratic circles will be thrown into much turmoil and vexation of spirit by a press dispatch from Baltimore foreshadowing the removal of former Senator Watson's legal residence to Maryland. The story is also interesting because it involves the ambition of a former Fairmont, President Jere Wheelwright, to be governor of Maryland. The dispatch is as follows:

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—Former United States Senator Clarence W. Watson, from West Virginia, and President Jere Wheelwright, of the Consolidation Coal Company, of this city, are the central figures in an amazing story of Democratic political intrigue that became known in this city today. The tale bears all the earmarks of probability and will create a profound sensation in West Virginia as well as in Maryland.

For some time those who are in the inner circle of his business in this state have known that the affable president of the great coal company which dominates the Democratic party of the Little Mountain State, has been badly bitten by the gubernatorial bug. Few, however, realized that his ambition involved not only grabbing of the state plum for himself two years hence, but the disposal of the first United States senatorship falling vacant after that time. And it is not the West Virginia toga that is thus so easily disposed of. If the plan carries through it will be Senator Watson, of Maryland.

NEWSBOYS

Of the City to Be Entertained at Police Headquarters Tonight.

Arrangements were being made at the police department today to entertain at least 250 newsboys of the city at a banquet to be given the youngsters at headquarters tonight. Over 200 boys had registered early this morning and with a few still coming in, it was expected that the total would be well to at least 250 before evening.

Ice cream, candy, pies and other goodies, contributed by merchants, wholesale men, bakeries and ice cream factories, are to be served. All furniture was removed from the court room and reading room this morning and long tables were placed in position for the banquet.

The entertainment starts at 7 o'clock and will last for two hours. It was decided this afternoon to have the boys parade through the main streets of the city just before the beginning of the entertainment. All boys who intend attending the banquet are asked to come to police headquarters at 6:30 o'clock and get in the parade. At 1 o'clock this afternoon 236 boys had registered at headquarters.

DEATH ANGEL

Claims Mrs. Elizabeth Wasmer Wife of Minrad Wasmer, of Pickens.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wasmer, aged 64 years, wife of Minrad Wasmer, a well known and popular resident of Pickens, died at 7:40 o'clock in a local hospital following an operation. Mrs. Wasmer was taken ill at her home at Pickens last week and her condition became so serious last Sunday that a special train was run from Pickens to Weston to bring her to a local hospital here when an operation was performed upon her in an effort to save her life but to no avail.

Surviving relatives of the deceased woman are Minrad Wasmer, her husband; A. M. and P. A. Wasmer, of Pickens, and O. A. Wasmer, of Arkansas, sons; Mrs. Andrew Nordland and Misses Sophia and Mary Wasmer all living at Pickens, daughters. The deceased was an aunt of the Rev. Mr. Swint, of Weston, and Sister Christine, of this city.

Mrs. Wasmer was a good, devout Christian woman, a kind and loving wife and mother and had a host of friends both at Pickens and in this city who were pained to hear of her death.

The body was prepared for burial and taken to Weston on the 3 o'clock interurban street car Tuesday afternoon and from there will be taken to her home at Pickens Tuesday night.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at the Catholic church at Pickens, of which the deceased was a lifelong member, and the burial will be in the Catholic church cemetery there.

OLD RULE

Prevents a Real Hero from Being Awarded Victoria Cross by the British.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Why the young navy officer who swam ashore from a British submarine in the sea of Marmora and blew up the Ismid railway bridge in spite of the Turkish guard should receive only the Distinguished Service Order, her astonished public, since so many lesser heroes have received the greater honor of the Victoria Cross. But the award was made under a rule that has long obtained in the service. Even Lieutenant Holbrook would have obtained merely the Distinguished Service Order for taking his submarine through the mine field of the Dardanelles and sinking a Turkish warship had not the king himself intervened.

By the unwritten law of the service, the Victoria Cross is awarded for a deed of great gallantry performed without orders and generally for saving lives under fire. The Distinguished Service Order is for gallantry in following orders. Yet Lieutenant Guy Hughes, in blowing up the Ismid bridge, acted on his own initiative from the time he left the boat until he was picked up again, and in popular opinion should have received the more coveted medal. It is a good deal like the case of Lieutenant Warneford in attacking and wrecking a Zeppelin, which resulted in a Victoria Cross.
